£1,250,000

Set in an elevated and commanding position on the outskirts of the village, within the heart of Snowdonia National Park, this impressive country residence enjoys breathtaking views across the surrounding valley and towards the iconic Waterloo Bridge.

Tenure: Freehold. EPC rating E. Council Tax Band - G.

Beautifully improved and upgraded over the years, the property offers a substantial, characterful main house complemented by a charming attached two-bedroom cottage for holiday letting, extended family or guest accommodation.

Approached via a generous gravelled forecourt providing ample parking, the house immediately impresses with its handsome stone elevations, ivy-clad façade and welcoming arched entrance. The setting is picturesque, framed by mature trees and landscaped gardens that gently wrap around the property.

The main residence offers spacious and well-appointed accommodation, enhanced by quality fixtures and fittings throughout. Internally, the home perfectly balances period charm with modern comfort. A superb country kitchen features bespoke cabinetry, traditional range cooker, creating a warm and sociable heart to the home. Elegant reception rooms enjoy high ceilings, feature fireplaces and a wonderful sense of character, ideal for both relaxed family living and entertaining.

Upstairs, generously proportioned bedrooms include delightful period details such as exposed beams and vaulted ceilings, with attractive views over the gardens and surrounding countryside. The bathrooms are well-appointed, in keeping with the overall quality of the property.

The attached cottage is equally appealing, offering two bedrooms and comfortable living accommodation, making it perfectly suited for holiday letting in this highly desirable National Park location or for independent guest accommodation.

Location

The landscaped gardens are a particular highlight. Rolling lawns, mature shrubs and colourful planting provide year-round interest, while seating areas and terraces offer wonderful vantage points from which to enjoy the scenery. The property's elevated position ensures privacy and spectacular outlooks, creating a true sense of retreat whilst remaining within convenient reach of local amenities.

Betws Y Coed is situated within the Snowdonia National Park, surrounded by woodland and forest in a area of outstanding national beauty and where the tributaries of the River Conwy, Llugwy and Lledr meet. The spectacular Swallow Falls and Conwy Falls are nearby.

This is a superb character country house in an enviable Snowdonia setting — offering space, versatility and lifestyle appeal in equal measure.
