VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

This substantial four-bedroom village home has been sympathetically upgraded and tastefully modernised to a high standard, blending traditional charm with contemporary comfort.

Constructed of attractive stone under a slate roof, the house boasts double glazing, oak timberwork throughout, and a welcoming, homely feel. The accommodation is spacious and versatile, ideally suited for family living or as a luxurious retreat.

A standout feature is the newly fitted country-style kitchen with central island, quartz worktops, and integrated appliances. The reception rooms include 2 comfortable sitting rooms with exposed stone fireplaces and wood-burning stove, and a separate dining room.

There are three double bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom on the first floor, including a newly installed ensuite to the principal bedroom. A fourth double bedroom is located on the ground floor, along with a smartly appointed shower room, offering flexible use as a guest suite or home office.

Location

Externally, the property continues to impress with an enclosed rear courtyard, ideal for outdoor dining, and steps leading to a well-maintained garden with lawn and patio seating area. The rear elevation enjoys uninterrupted, far-reaching views across open fields toward Snowdon and the surrounding peaks, an ever-changing backdrop of exceptional natural beauty.
