£340,000

A substantial beautifully presented Victorian townhouse, occupying a convenient position on the outskirts of the market town and within easy walking distance of the town centre, railway station and the popular riverside walk over Gower bridge towards Trefriw.,

Tenure: Freehold. EPC - TBA. Council Tax Band - D.

Beautifully presented throughout, the property retains much of its original character and charm, with generously proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors together with useful lower ground floor basement rooms.

The accommodation offers an impressive entrance hall with original style tiled flooring and staircase, two spacious reception rooms to the ground floor and a well appointed dining kitchen, ideal for family living and entertaining. To the lower ground floor there are three useful basement rooms, offering excellent flexibility for storage, hobbies or ancillary use.

To the upper floors there are six bedrooms in total, together with a particularly spacious family bathroom and separate WC, providing ample accommodation for a growing family or those seeking a home with versatility and space. Gas central heating and double glazing.

The house is complemented by a rear yard together with large garages/workshop buildings, a valuable addition which offers excellent potential for storage, workshop use or a variety of practical purposes.

This is a fine example of a sizeable period home offering character, space and versatility in equal measure, ideally suited to family occupation and conveniently placed for local amenities and transport links.
