Hafod Gras Crafnant Road

Trefriw LL27 0JZ

£355,000

A beautifully renovated former farm building, nestled in the breathtaking Crafnant Valley, enjoying a superb position close to the shores of Llyn Crafnant.

This unique home combines traditional stone and timber finishes with contemporary interior styling, offering a peaceful rural retreat surrounded by some of North Wales' most spectacular scenery.

Set in approximately 2.7 acres, the grounds include landscaped seating terraces, a covered outdoor lounge area, and a firepit, perfect for enjoying the evening sunsets. To the rear and side lie grass paddocks, separated by a small stream, offering potential for leisure use or small-scale livestock keeping. The property also benefits from private parking.

The property features an open-plan living and dining area with vaulted ceiling, skylight windows and delightful views towards the surrounding hills. A tastefully designed, compact kitchen is fitted with modern units, integrated sink, electric hob, oven, fridge, and plumbing for an automatic washing machine. A double bedroom with French doors opening to the garden terrace enjoys a bright and airy feel, while the stylish shower room is finished to a high standard with a walk-in rainfall shower, contemporary tiling and modern fittings.

Location

The location is truly special, a short stroll from Llyn Crafnant with its boating and fishing opportunities, and surrounded by walking trails that lead deep into the Snowdonia National Park. Despite its tranquillity, the property is within easy reach of the village of Trefriw and the wider Conwy Valley, with Betws-y-Coed and Llanrwst just a short drive away.

A rare opportunity to acquire a charming, modernised rural home in one of Snowdonia's most beautiful valleys.
