Included is approx. 4.5 acres (sts), which before the current owner bought it was a landlocked tangled mess that had not been neglected for 40+ years. After years of immense effort and care the wood is now accessible from a public footpath and has had a circular path made that weaves its way around what is now a tranquil wildlife sanctuary, across 2 streams over 5 bridges through masses of wild garlic and bluebells and past several waterfalls and through enchanting glades.

Words cant do it justice, you need to go around and soak up the peaceful calming atmosphere yourself, before you realise what a secret gem you could own.
