A delightful two bedroom semi-detached modern home located on a prestigious development in Crow on the edge of Ringwood and close to the New Forest.

The kitchen / dining room is located at the rear of the house and leads directly to the enclosed south facing garden. This open space has a wide range of built in units and appliances. In addition there is a walk in pantry store and conveniently located cloakroom. To the front there is a cosy sitting room and reception hall. The first floor boasts two double bedrooms which are both serviced by the large family bathroom.

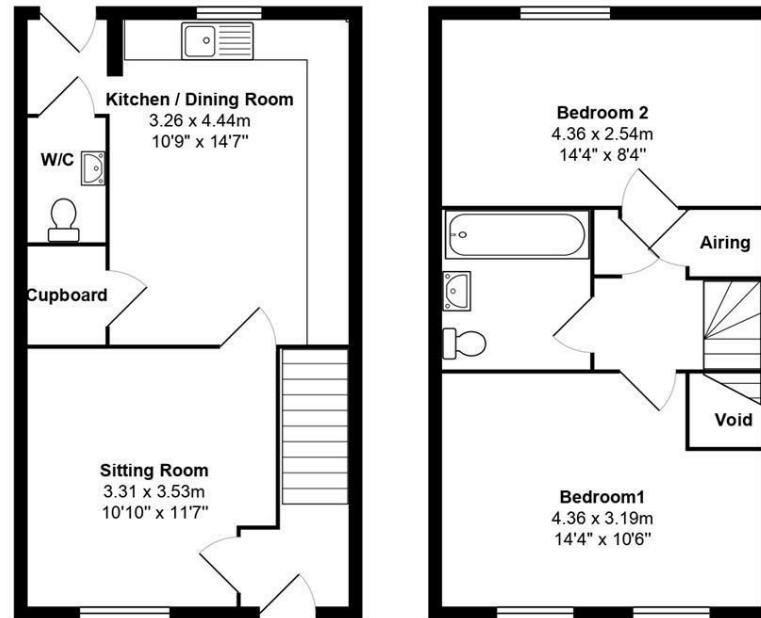

The rear garden is south facing and is ideal for children to play in or for summer barbeques. To the side there is a long drive way providing side access to the rear garden and off road parking for two cars.
