Summary

Reid & Roberts are excited to present for sale this Four Bedroom detached property, formerly known as the Ship Inn Public House. Recently modernized, it holds potential for continued use as a pub with living quarters or as an Airbnb.

The spacious layout includes a welcoming Reception Hallway, an Inner Hallway, a Bar Area, a Cellar, a Lounge, a Sitting Room, a contemporary Kitchen, a Conservatory, Dining Room, a Downstairs Double Bedroom Four with an En-Suite Bathroom, and an additional Shower Room. Upstairs, a generous landing leads to Three Double Bedrooms, a fully equipped Bathroom, and a separate Shower Room, with a UPVC double-glazed door providing fire access to the rear garden.

Outside, the property features well-maintained lawned gardens at the front, complemented by a shared sweeping driveway that leads to the back, where you'll find two Single Garages. The rear gardens are spacious, equipped with three wooden hutches, and extend to a side paved patio area with wooden table sets, all surrounded by hedging for privacy.

Greenfield offers a variety of shops, a school and is close by to Holywell which offers a wide range of Local Shops, and supermarkets, as well as Schools, Churches, Public Transport and Recreational Facilities. A Town market takes place on a Thursday whereby Holywell hosts a range of individual retailers and food stalls. The market town of Holywell is well known for St Winefride's Well, a holy well surrounded by a chapel, dedicated to Saint Winefride. The Greenfield Valley which is situated a short walk from Holywell Town is a heritage park
