Property Description

Reid & Roberts Estate and Letting Agents are delighted to present to the market this three-bedroom detached bungalow, occupying a particularly generous corner plot within a popular residential development and enjoying beautiful views across the surrounding countryside.

Set within an attractive semi-rural location, the property enjoys the best of both worlds, a pleasant residential setting whilst being surrounded by the natural beauty of open farmland, rolling hillsides and far-reaching countryside. The position is undoubtedly one of the home's greatest attributes, with attractive views enjoyed from several rooms and a wonderful feeling of space around the property.

The generous corner plot provides gardens extending around the home, together with a detached single garage, driveway parking and an additional parking area. The size and configuration of the plot also provide exciting potential for further development or extension, subject to the necessary planning permissions and consents, making this an excellent opportunity for buyers looking for a home they can adapt to suit their own requirements.

Internally, the accommodation is thoughtfully arranged with the living accommodation positioned predominantly to one side of the bungalow and the bedrooms to the other. The property would benefit from some modernisation, presenting a fantastic opportunity to put your own stamp on the home and create a stylish bungalow tailored to your own taste.

The accommodation briefly comprises an Entrance Hallway, spacious Lounge opening through to the Dining Room, fitted Kitchen, Three Bedrooms, Bathroom and Separate WC. Externally, the property is complemented by established gardens, patio areas for outdoor seating and entertaining, a detached garage and off-road parking.

With its generous corner position, beautiful countryside outlook and excellent potential, this is a property that offers considerably more than first meets the eye and viewing is highly recommended.
