OFFERS AROUND - £1,000,000

A truly delightful, imposing and traditional period detached family residence, set within a prime and highly sought after position midway between Mere Green and Sutton Coldfield. Enjoying excellent local amenities and convenient bus transport links, the property offers a rare blend of timeless style, character and proportion, combined with the exciting opportunity for a purchaser to modernise and enhance the home to their own specification, having gas central heating and partial double glazing (where specified).

Internally, the accommodation is both elegant and versatile, ideally suited to both relaxed family living and entertaining on a more formal scale. A welcoming reception hall immediately sets the tone, leading through to an attractive lounge featuring a character fireplace and bi-fold doors opening into a study / rear day room, creating a wonderful flow of interconnected living space. A separate dining room, once again complemented by a feature marble fireplace, provides an excellent setting for hosting, while the fitted breakfast kitchen, utility room incorporating a shower area, and guest cloakroom / WC ensure everyday practicality is well catered for.

To the first floor are four generous double bedrooms, including an impressive principal bedroom suite with dressing room, together with a family bathroom and separate WC. The property also boasts large, twin cellars, ideal for storage and offering excellent potential for conversion into a home gym, cinema or home office (subject to any necessary permissions/consents). Externally, the home sits on a generous mature plot with a particularly private, south-westerly facing rear garden, enjoying afternoon and evening sunshine, an abundance of established shrubbery, a garden room, and a substantial garage—providing a superb backdrop for entertaining, family enjoyment and outdoor living. To fully appreciate the accommodation on offer, we highly recommend an internal inspection.
