The White House is a wonderful and unusual property located in the tranquil setting of the Churnet valley. Situated on the bank of the River Churnet, alongside a historic steam railway.

The cottage stands on approximately an acre of garden and paddocks and dates from the mid 1800s. Both the interior and exterior have original features from that period.

This is an ideal property for those seeking a rural retreat tucked away from the busy world yet accessible to local amenities.

Access is granted to the cottage via a footbridge over the river, the cottage sits on a 1 acre plot of land and there is a further area of land amounting to 0.81 acres providing a useful meadow and parking area.

Ground Floor

The property embraces a traditional country cottage feel throughout both floors with original features including beamed ceilings and ledge and brace internal doors.

Welcoming you to the cottage through the front door is the Entrance Hall which provides access to the Kitchen.

The Kitchen is fitted with wall and base units, electric cooker with extractor fan over, integrated fridge, freezer and washing machine, plumbing and space for dishwasher, tiled floor and sink with drainer and mixer tap. There is also a traditional open fire with cast iron mantel. External access door gives access to the rear garden and convenient under stairs storage and the Bathroom is also accessed from the kitchen.

Located on the ground floor the Bathroom comprises of tiled flooring and a fitted matching three piece suite including bath with shower over, sink and WC.

Thence to the Dining Room, with carpeted floor and home to a lovely double sided log burner that is shared with the living room.

Timber steps lead down from the Dining Room into the Lounge. The cottage feel and charm is continued in this room through the elevation of the double faced log burner. Enchanting views to the front and rear of the property can be enjoyed from the lounge. Double French style external doors allow access to the garden area.

First Floor

The staircase rises from the Hall to the Landing. The first floor has two spacious double bedrooms both enjoying the unique views surrounding the property. There is ample storage in both bedrooms with an airing cupboard in one and built in cupboards in the other. Both bedrooms have carpeted floors.

Externally

The property is bordered by the river Churnet and the Churnet Railway which is a preserved standard gauge heritage railway that was opened in 1849. The property also benefits from three parcels of land with the whole plot extending to circa 1.81 acres. Sitting at the front of the property is a well-maintained paddock, at the rear of the property is a delightful area of woodland pasture, home to mature trees and further down the river is another plot of pastureland suitable for grazing purposes. The rear garden is predominantly enclosed by fencing, laid to lawn with a patio area, perfect to enjoy the views of the river and the railway.
