Thatcher Yates, Dig Street, Hartington

Externally

There is a splendid walled forecourt to the front of the property with wrought iron pedestrian access gate leading from Dig Street. The Forecourt is well stocked with matured flower and shrub beds flanked with flag stone paving. There is a pedestrian access gate at the side of the property which provides access to the rear. Parking is on street and the owner informs us they generally park on the street directly outside the property.

To the rear is a quaint walled cottage garden with paved patio to the immediate rear and stone steps leading up to the higher level garden having attractive flower and shrub beds with gravel borders and flag stone path. The garden retains a good level of privacy and is enclosed by stone walling, neighbouring farmland to one side. Within the rear garden are two useful store sheds providing outside storage space.
