

Development site, Barns at Top House Farm
Dalbury Lees

Development site,
Barns at Top House Farm,
Dalbury Lees
Ashbourne
Derbyshire
DE6 5BE

Delightfully situated set back from the road backing onto fields within the much sought after village of Dalbury Lees stands this intriguing range of outbuildings which have planning consent approved for change of use to two separate single storey detached dwellings.

The planning consent also permits the formation of a new access from the lane side leading to the barn.

Dalbury Lees is splendidly positioned being equidistant from the historic market town of Ashbourne, and the City of Derby. It has a popular local public house and village hall which enhance this village community.

A unique development opportunity which cannot be viewed from the kerb side therefore an onsite inspection is essential to appreciate the location and potential of the site on offer .

The site extends to approximately 0.57 acres in all.

Barn One

Barn one is a more traditional barn in part with the proposal of a more contemporary element once converted. It is positioned at right angles to Barn Two.

The proposal is for open plan living space in the more contemporary part with large glazed doors designed to flood the rooms with light, while the bedroom areas are proposed to be in the more traditional area of the barn.

Further details on the planning consent can be found on the South Derbyshire website application no. DMPN/2025/0325.

Barn Two

Barn Two is proposed as a single storey conversion of a modern steel portal framed former agricultural building. It is idyllically situated to the rear of the plot with open farmland to the rear.

The proposal is for open plan living/dining kitchen space which would enjoy the stunning outlook and separate lounge on the rear. Three formal bedrooms would be afforded with the master bedroom having an en-suite also at the back to make the most of the open outlook of the barn.

Further details on the planning consent can be found on the South Derbyshire website application no. DMPN/2025/0325.
