Burrows Farm Cottages

Location:

The properties are situated in a delightful rural location on Hall Lane which is a quiet lane on the edge of the village of Brailsford. There are far reaching views enjoyed to the front with the Weaver Hills visible in the distance on a clear day. The property is surrounded by open farmland and provides a good level of privacy.

The village of Brailsford is much sought after with a thriving village community and many amenities including, village hall, cafes, shop, public house, cricket club, primary schools, church and golf course with a driving range.

There is a direct and regular bus route between Ashbourne and Derby with numerous bus stops within Brailsford village.

Description:

Each cottage has good sized gardens, drive providing off road parking and a garage. They offer great scope for further enhancement and extension, subject to necessary planning consent.

Cottage 1 has been renovated in recent years with central heating and double glazing installed along with a new kitchen bathroom and the addition of a utility room and cloakroom in the former outhouse space.

Cottage 2 has been partially renovated with new windows and bathroom while also offering scope for further improvements.

The land wraps around the cottages to the south and western elevation. In all it extends to just over 3 acres approximately.

It is the preference of the vendor to sell cottage 1 with the tenant in situ subject to the terms of their Assured shorthold tenancies, however, if a buyer prefers for both the properties to be sold with vacant possession this can be arranged.
