Assessments First

Externally:

Gorton Green is situated within well kept mature gardens which surround the property. From the utility, there is a stable door which leads you to the rear of the property. There are several areas for storage, with two garden sheds situated around the lawn. In the south corner of the garden, there is a sunken area which creates a picturesque location for a small seating area. There is also a large patio area to the south of the garden, this creates a substantial seating area to enjoy the south facing views across the garden.

Outbuildings:

The property also has a block under felt stable block with two boxes. These are both fitted with water and electric.

At the left of the property, there is a single storey double garage creating a large storage area.

Land:

Included within the property is a parcel of land extending to circa 4.51 acres (1.824 hectares). This provides excellent grazing land. The boundary to the land is by post and wire fencing. There is an automatic fill trough in the right paddock area which serves all the land.
