Former Garden Centre Land and Building

Bradbourne Road

Fenny Bentley

Ashbourne, Derbyshire

DE6 1LF

0.33ac

An intriguing parcel of land which had formally been used as a garden centre, having gated roadside access and planning consent to construct a guest accommodation block for holiday use which was granted in November 2023.

Delightfully positioned within the village of Fenny Bentley, opposite to the Bentley Brook Inn and backing onto open farmland to the rear.

There is a block built building providing storage on the land and there is ample hardstanding for a number of vehicles.

The land would be suitable for a variety of uses subject to necessary consents.

Planning Permission

There is planning consent granted to “construct additional guest accommodation block with the Bentley Brook Inn”. Further information on the planning consent for the building can be found on the Local Authority, Peak District National Park, planning portal under reference NP/DDD/0823/0998.

It should be noted that further planning consent was granted on the site for guest accommodation of a further 5 letting units in 2021 but this consent has now expired. Further details of this planning consent can be found on the Peak District planning portal under reference number NP/DDD/0321/0261.

Services:

The vendors inform us that the land does benefit from a separate sub-metred supply of water and electricity from the Bentley Brook Inn. However, a purchaser may need to install a separate independent supply should they wish for these services to be provided ongoing.

Tenure and Possession

The land is sold freehold with vacant possession upon completion.
