Location:

The property is located to the north of the sought-after town of Matlock (1 mile), with easy access to a broad range of amenities, and further nearby towns. These include: Wirksworth to the south (6 miles), Chesterfield to the northeast (8 miles), Bakewell to the northwest (9 miles), and Alfreton to the east (9 miles). The property situates nearby-to the Peak District National Park, providing an array of local walks, bridleways, trails and beauty spots.

General Information

Description:

A parcel of land amounting to approximately 8.45 acres (3.42 hectares), comprising a former quarry together with an established woodland and rough grassland. The woodland is dense, with a variety of mature trees and shrubbery, perfect for those with amenity interests. Upon the site, a former quarry building and yard area is sited in the centre, with the property benefitting from vehicular access off Cuckoostone Lane. The rough grazing would be suitable for grazing of small livestock, and will appeal to those with hobby farming and lifestyle interests, as well as neighbouring landowners.

Directions:

From Matlock town centre, head northeast along Chesterfield Road A632. With the Golf Club entrance on your left hand side, continue straight for approximately 500 yards. Turn left onto Cuckoostone Lane, a private lane, and continue for 0.5 miles to the end. The property can be found straight ahead, indicated by our For Sale board. What3Words ///jazzy.making.dent
