Stocksmoor Farm

Location

Old Tupton is a sought after Derbyshire village with great accessibility into popular towns and cities, as well as the Peak District National Park and various rural beauty spots. The village benefits from having an array of local amenities and boasts easy transport links into surrounding towns including Clay Cross (1.80 miles), Chesterfield (4.8 miles), Matlock (6.3 miles), Bakewell (12.1 miles), and Mansfield (12.5 miles). The cities of Sheffield and Derby each offer a 20 mile commute respectively, where a further extensive range of amenities and facilities can be found. The Peak District locates close-by and offers an excellent range of opportunities for walkers, climbers, cyclists and outdoor enthusiasts alike with a vast network of footpaths and trails in close proximity.

Description

The sale of Stocksmoor Farm offers a unique opportunity to acquire a smallholding with great potential, on the edge of a sought-after village with great accessibility and commutability into larger towns and cities. Stocksmoor Farm occupies a quiet, private position with views across the surrounding grassland, and presents a family home in need of internal renovations and modernisation but boasting much opportunity and generously sized accommodation. Alongside the farmhouse, a range of outbuildings situate within the yard area, each flexible in their uses with some presenting potential for conversion (subject to the necessary planning consents). Gardens and paddocks wrap around the farmhouse and outbuildings, extending to approximately 2.41 acres, suitable for livestock and/or horses.

Although rural and private, the property offers great accessibility into the town of Chesterfield where a wide range of amenities can be found. Stocksmoor Farm will appeal to those seeking the 'country lifestyle' with the amenity aspects of life, as well as those seeking agricultural and equestrian prospects.

Directions

From the centre of Chesterfield head south on the A61 heading out of town. Continue along the A61 for approx. 3 miles, at the Old Tupton roundabout take the third exit onto Ashover Road, signposted for Littlemoor. Follow Ashover Road out of the village for approx. 0.6 miles. The property can be found on the right hand side, the last access driveway out of the village down the left hand side of a neighbouring property, and indicated by our 'For Sale' board.

Viewings are strictly by appointment only.

Accommodation

Stocksmoor Farm provides a traditional farmhouse dating back to 1704 and offers ample opportunity to create an attractive family home with good-sized accommodation. Internally, the farmhouse requires renovations and modernisation throughout but boasts much potential, and offers space to extend further should one wish (subject to the necessary planning consent). The accommodation spreads across two floors, with the ground floor offering entrance into a spacious kitchen diner with fitted units and an Aga, through to a sitting room overlooking the lawned gardens, to one end of the house a family room presents further living space with dual aspect views, whilst a snug offers a cosy space with an external door into the garden.

The first floor offers four good-sized bedrooms, three of which host a basin, and each overlook the lawned gardens and adjoining paddocks. A family bathroom hosts a bath, shower, basin, and w/c.

Converted outbuildings adjoining the farmhouse to the eastern end offer a useful utility area and external cloakroom with w/c, and two separate general stores.

Assessments First

Externally:

The farmhouse offers secluded lawned gardens around the perimeter with various mature trees along the property boundary and scattered sparsely across the garden. The yard area at the property provides ample parking space for multiple vehicles, and offers good access to the outbuildings.

Buildings:

The buildings at the property locate within the farmyard, adjacent to the farmhouse, and present many opportunities including agricultural, equestrian and/or development potential (subject to planning consent).

Ranging in size, the buildings are mostly in good heart, with some basic repairs needed in places but providing housing for small livestock and horses, as well as general storage and workshop spaces. The smaller outbuildings briefly comprise of a workshop, a garage, a Nissan hut, and a timber framed open fronted building, all flexible in their uses. A traditional, brick-built building offers ample opportunity for conversion, subject to the necessary planning consents, providing potential for an annex/ancillary or holiday accommodation. A useful steel portal framed building offers further space to be adapted to suit a purchasers need.

Land:

The land at Stocksmoor Farm locates around the farmhouse and buildings, and the paddocks are all down to grassland suitable for grazing of livestock and horses. The acreage on offer, approximately 2.33 acres, is a manageable amount and will suit those with smallholder and equestrian interests. The land will also appeal to those seeking the 'country lifestyle' and wanting the amenity aspects of life with ample space for gardens and vegetable plots, with the privacy and seclusion of rural life.
