Location:

Upper Thornseat situates on the outskirts of the rural village of Low Bradfield, surrounded by picturesque moorland, hills and dales being in the heart of the Peak District National Park, whilst remaining close-by and accessible to many amenities and links. Nearby towns and villages provide a range of amenities including highly regarded schools, shops, restaurants, churches and public houses. Although the immediate locality is rural, Sheffield town centre is located just 9.5 miles to the east, rural villages such as Low Bradfield just 1.4 miles to the east, Hope 11.1 miles to the west and the popular market town of Bakewell just 19.5 miles to the south. There are many nearby local walks, bridleways, trails and beauty spots being situated within such a rural location.

Dwelling

Upper Thornseat is a delightful period home brimming with character, offering well-presented accommodation arranged over two floors and providing generous space for comfortable family living. Rich in original features and full of rustic charm, the property offers an exciting opportunity for sympathetic modernisation and refurbishment, allowing a new owner to create a truly exceptional countryside retreat.

The property is approached via the main front entrance, where a solid wooden door opens into a welcoming small reception area. To the left, you enter a charming cottage-style kitchen, beautifully appointed with exposed timber beams, original stone mullioned windows, and solid wood cabinetry and work surfaces. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the spacious dining room, an inviting space ideal for family gatherings and entertaining, while also offering secondary access to the rear patio and garden.

Also on the ground floor is a generously proportioned living room, elegantly styled in keeping with the home's traditional character. This room boasts a range of period features and enjoys picturesque views over the surrounding countryside, creating a warm and tranquil setting.

A staircase rises to the first-floor landing, where the property continues to impress. There are two well-sized double bedrooms, including a superb master bedroom with far-reaching views across the valley and rural landscape. A third room, currently utilised as a home office, provides flexibility for use as a single bedroom. Completing the first floor is a spacious family bathroom equipped with bath, basin and WC.
