DESCRIPTION

Ideally positioned this charming cottage was built in 1842 and has much of the original character and charm combined with contemporary fittings.

The accommodation is double fronted and features a sitting room to one side with a focal point of a feature fireplace with tiled hearth and surround and with natural wood flooring whilst to the other side is a separate dining room which opens onto the recently installed fitted kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of modern grey units with contrasting work surface over and the ground floor accommodation is completed by the adjacent shower room/WC fitted with a white suite with chrome fittings. From the kitchen area there is also a doorway leading onto the rear gardens with views towards open fields beyond.

To the first floor there are two excellent double bedrooms, the master running the full depth of the property with unopposed views to the front and rear and with fitted wardrobes.

Externally the gardens to the rear incorporate an Indian stone patio seating area with open countryside beyond. The location is ideal being within easy reach of Hale village centre and Hale Barns village centre and also with Altrincham town centre a little further distant. The property is also well placed for access to the surrounding network of motorways, lies within the catchment area of highly regarded primary and secondary schools and with Wythenshawe Hospital close by.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the charm of the property.
