Tenure Freehold Council Tax Band B

Nestled in the desirable village of Chinley, High Peak, this charming end-terrace house on Princes Road has been a cherished home for the past 50 years. The property has undergone a roof replacement and boasts a new boiler, offering plenty of potential for personalisation. Inside, you'll find two welcoming reception rooms, two spacious double bedrooms, and a large loft space that could be converted into additional living accommodation (subject to planning approval).

The location enhances the property's appeal, set in a scenic area renowned for its breathtaking landscapes and friendly community. Residents benefit from local amenities such as shops, schools, and parks, all conveniently close. The surrounding countryside presents endless opportunities for outdoor activities, making it a perfect haven for nature enthusiasts.

This end-terrace house is not just a delightful home; it's also a fantastic investment opportunity in a sought-after area. With its attractive features and prime location, it will capture the attention of a wide range of buyers.

Directions

From our Buxton office turn right and bear right at the roundabout continuing along Station Road and heading out of Buxton on the A6 towards Stockport. Travel for several miles, through Dove Holes towards Chapel-en-le-Frith and Whaley Bridge. After a while, the road becomes a dual carriageway. Turn left at the roundabout and turn right at the next roundabout following the signs for Chinley. Continue through Chapel Milton and into Chinley along Buxton
