

Occupying a superb position along the highly sought-after Bushton Lane, this exceptional detached residence enjoys breathtaking panoramic views across the surrounding Staffordshire countryside. Individually designed and finished to an outstanding specification, the property effortlessly combines striking contemporary architecture with cutting-edge technology, luxurious finishes and beautifully proportioned living spaces. Offering an impressive open-plan kitchen, living and dining area, a superb principal suite, generous bedroom accommodation and exceptional outdoor entertaining spaces, this is a truly outstanding home that has been crafted without compromise.

Ground Floor

The home is entered via a stunning 1.3 metre wide Italian-designed aluminium pivot front door, immediately opening into an impressive double-height reception hall where the quality of finish is immediately evident. Large format industrial Amtico stone flooring flows throughout the hallway, whilst the bespoke oak and glass open-tread staircase, complete with individually illuminated LED treads, creates a spectacular focal point. A full-height fitted mirrored coat and shoe storage area provides excellent practicality, whilst automated lighting, feature skylights and carefully designed LED lighting enhance the sense of space.

Positioned to the front of the property is a beautifully proportioned living room, providing an elegant yet comfortable reception space overlooking the front aspect.

To the opposite side of the hallway are two generous double bedrooms, both benefiting from fitted media points and excellent natural light. These are served by a beautifully appointed Jack & Jill shower room, fitted with Aquaroc furniture incorporating a solid stone basin, premium Flovia brassware, Imex sanitaryware, heated towel rail and a contemporary glass-screened wet room.

A separate home office offers the perfect work-from-home environment, complete with sliding aluminium doors opening directly onto the rear patio.

Undoubtedly the centrepiece of the property is the magnificent open-plan kitchen, living and dining space. Designed for modern family living, this superb room enjoys full-width aluminium sliding doors opening directly onto the landscaped gardens, creating a seamless connection between inside and out.

The bespoke kitchen has been thoughtfully designed around a striking curved central island with integrated wine cooler, breakfast seating and pop-up power points. A comprehensive range of floor-to-ceiling cabinetry houses an extensive collection of integrated Hotpoint appliances including twin multifunction ovens with steam, microwave, roasting and air fry functions, warming drawers, full-height fridge, full-height freezer, integrated dishwasher and waste recycling system. A Belfast sink is complemented by a Proboil instant boiling, filtered, hot and cold water tap, whilst the pyrolytic induction hob sits beneath a matching extractor with bronze mirrored splashback. Hidden LED lighting, feature pendant lighting and the bespoke media wall complete this exceptional space.

Leading directly from the kitchen is a fully fitted utility room, offering further bespoke cabinetry, Belfast sink, eye-level washing machine and tumble dryer space with integrated laundry storage beneath, together with external access and integral access to the garage.

Completing the ground floor is a beautifully appointed cloakroom finished to the same luxurious standard found throughout the home.

First Floor

The bespoke staircase rises to a stunning galleried landing beneath large opening roof lights, where a feature Venetian plaster wall provides an elegant focal point.

The principal suite occupies the entire first floor, creating an exceptional private retreat.

The bedroom itself is wonderfully spacious and enjoys direct access onto the spectacular first-floor balcony through large aluminium sliding doors. A luxurious freestanding slipper bath has been positioned within the bedroom to fully appreciate the outstanding countryside views beyond.

Leading from the bedroom is an impressive dressing room, fitted with extensive floor-to-ceiling mirrored wardrobes, built-in dressing table with power, feature skylight and bespoke storage.

The luxurious en-suite has been beautifully designed, featuring Aquaroc furniture with twin solid stone basins, a full-height matching storage cupboard, premium Axor brassware, large walk-in wet room, heated towel rail, electric shaver point and a fully automated Imex smart toilet. Electric blinds complete the suite.

Just off the galleried landing is secret storage room providing valuable additional storage and could equally serve a variety of ancillary uses.
