An attractive, spacious and much improved four double bedroom detached property, offering comfortable and highly appealing living accommodation throughout, occupying a delightful generous size plot extending to approximately 0.5 of an acre. The property enjoys a lovely semi-rural setting within the popular village of Yockleton with beautifully established grounds providing an excellent degree of privacy and space. A particular appealing feature is the way in which the gardens extend down towards a local brook, creating a peaceful and picturesque backdrop and providing a wonderful setting in which to relax and enjoy the surrounding countryside. Yockleton is a highly regarded village situated approximately 7 miles west of the historic county town of Shrewsbury, surrounded by attractive open countryside and enjoying a strong sense of community. The village has a pleasant rural character, with the holy trinity church, village hall and the well regarded Yockleton Arms nearby. The surrounding area provides an abundance of opportunities for walking and enjoying the beautiful Shropshire countryside. The Shrewsbury by-pass is readily accessible, providing convenient connections towards the A5 and M54 towards Telford, Birmingham and the wider West Midlands. Shrewsbury itself is easily reached and offers extensive range of shopping, dining, recreational and educational facilities together with a mainline railway station. The combination of generous accommodation, attractive well established grounds, a peaceful Brookside setting and excellent accessibility makes this property a fantastic purchase for a number of buyers.
