ACCOMMODATION

Boughton House is a purpose-built development of just 9 apartments, situated under a mile from Henley town centre and the railway station.

The property was built in 2006 and is situated in an acre of private gardens behind electric gates. The penthouse is over 2,500 sq ft occupying the whole of the top floor, with many skylights making it a bright space, with large rooms and views in all directions. Finished to a high standard, with plenty of useful storage, it is being sold with no onward chain.

The communal hallway has a secure entry system and stairs leading to the top floor and the wooden front door. There is a small lobby and a further to into the entrance hall. Doors open to all the principal rooms with a skylight above. The floor is tiled with some underfloor heating, and there is an entry phone system providing secure access to the visitors to the property.

Double wooden doors open into the impressive 30ft reception room, which has dual-aspect rooftop views and a vaulted ceiling. On one wall there is extensive illuminated display shelving - a real feature of the room. The space is open and bright, with three windows and two skylights; and the floor is carpeted.

There is an easy transition through to the kitchen/breakfast room, with a tiled floor, high ceilings and a fabulous roof lantern set into the ceiling above the large island unit. The island has a breakfast bar with cupboards beneath and a granite worktop. The fitted kitchen has wall and base level cabinets in a dark wooden finish, with integrated double ovens, a double stainless steel sink, an induction hob and extractor fan over. There is space for a dishwasher and a large recess for an American-style fridge freezer. The kitchen has doors to a large walk-in pantry, a further cupboard currently houses the washing machine and useful eaves storage running the length of the room.

The second reception room is a multi-purpose room, which could be a bedroom, home office, dining room or a gym. With a vaulted ceiling, with two Velux windows. wooden flooring, with wooden built-in cupboards at the end of the room and recessed spotlighting.

The principal bedroom suite is an elegant and generous space, with a walk-through dressing area with sliding doors, and an en-suite with a large shower, a w.c., a vanity wash hand basin, tiled floor and walls, and a heated towel rail. The carpeted double bedroom features a Velux window and has windows overlooking the front and side of the property, eaves storage and a central light point.

Bedroom 2 is a double that has two Velux windows to the side, a built-in wardrobe and shelving and is carpeted.

Bedroom 3 is a double located to the back of the property with a window overlooking the gardens, an in-built double wardrobe, carpeted, spot lights and wooden panelling on one wall.

The family bathroom has a tiled floor and partially tiled walls, with a w.c. and vanity hand wash basin and shower. There is a heated towel rail, spotlighting and a Velux window.

There is also an airing cupboard which houses the hot water tank and provides further storage.

Outside

The building sits within grounds of approximately half an acre with ample car parking for residents and visitors. The well-maintained gardens have areas of lawn, mature shrubs and raised beds with mature trees providing a degree of privacy. The house feels tucked away from the main road, yet sits in an elevated position, looking down over the town.
