ACCOMMODATION

Built in approximately 1902, this notable 3-storey riverside home is a warm and welcoming 6-bedroom family home. Set in a quiet no-through road, with delightful river views and with many original late-Victorian features, it is conveniently located for the village amenities including the railway station, and with access to the river via a quiet lawn.

The private gravel driveway has off-road parking for 4 cars. Through the part-glazed wooden front door to the bright and distinctive entrance hall, which features striking chequerboard tiled floors, a generous window to the front, panelling, an understairs cupboard and the original staircase. All the doors are original to the property.

Into the generous front reception room, with wooden floors, a large box-bay window to the front and a wood-burning stove in the fireplace. The room also features recessed shelving, and both wall-mounted and a central light fixture. It could serve either as a sitting room or a dining room.

From the reception hall and through into the large south-facing open-plan living / dining room. The room also benefits from wooden floors, a wood-burning stove set in a brick hearth, and a glazed wall with French doors overlooking the patio and rear garden. This delightful room has been decorated in soft tones and features integrated cabinets and matching panelling, and both wall-mounted and central light fittings.

The kitchen has windows along its length, and features a French blue set of wooden wall and base units with black granite worktops and a stainless steel 1/12 bowl sink inset. A wooden breakfast-bar has space for up to 5 stools, and storage under. Appliances include a dishwasher, a 5-burner gas range cooker with electric ovens, space for an American-style fridge-freezer, and space for a freestanding microwave. A door leads to the side return. A further door leads into the laundry utility room, with space for a washing machine and tumble dryer, a walk-in pantry, and an inset sink under a window which overlooks the rear garden.

From the hallway, a cloakroom has a w.c. and wash-hand basin, with a window to the side of the property.

Up the elegant carpeted stairs and to the first-floor landing. The guest bedroom (2) is a generous double with a large window overlooking the front aspect and its wonderful river views; with fitted wardrobes and an en suite bathroom featuring a w.c., a wash hand basin set into cabinets and a walk-in shower.

Bedroom 3 is a bright, pretty carpeted double with fitted wardrobes and a window overlooking the rear garden.

Bedroom 5 is a small double/large single bedroom with a window to the front with river views.

A family bathroom has colourful floor-to ceiling tilework, a w.c., wash hand basin and a bath with shower over.

Up the staircase to the 2nd floor landing.

The Principal bedroom (1) is a bright and generous double bedroom with windows on 2 aspects and riverside views. A walk-in dressing room forms part of this room, with ample fitted wardrobes and a skylight for natural light.

Bedroom 4 is a large double bedroom with a south-facing rear aspect and a Juliet balcony overlooking the garden. It is currently in use as a large study.

Bedroom 6 is a single bedroom with a window to the rear. It is currently in use as a gym.

A further bathroom has a w.c., wash hand basin set in a cabinet, and a bath with a shower wand, with a window for natural light and ventilation.

OUTSIDE

The rear of the property can be accessed via a side gate. The pretty enclosed rear garden features a sunny patio, and has been laid to lawn with mature shrubs and trees. The single garage can be accessed via a pedestrian door from the rear, or from the front. The front of the property features an enclosed shingle driveway, with shrubs on the periphery and a wall to the front with both a pedestrian gate and a larger gate.
