ACCOMMODATION

A step and part glazed front door opens into an entrance hall with a useful storage cupboard.

The main reception room has an electric fire with tile surround and hearth and wooden mantle piece. There is a large bay window with southerly aspect, overlooking the communal gardens which provide pleasant places to sit, especially in the summer months.

The kitchen is well equipped and has a range of eye and base level units, electric oven and hob, with space for fridge/freezer, washing machine and slim line dishwasher.

The double bedroom is a generous size and has a large built-in wardrobe and airing cupboard housing a hot water tank with an immersion heater.

The shower room has a walk-in extra large shower cubicle, a w.c. and a wash-hand basin. The walls are predominantly tiled.

Within the main apartment block there is a large conservatory providing a communal residents lounge, perfect for meeting with friends and socialising.

There is a manager on site in the mornings, five days a week and the bungalow benefits from emergency pull-cords in every room providing quick response, thus ensuring additional support and peace of mind.

Services: Mains electricity, Economy 7 electric heating, Mains water and drainage.

LOCATION

Living in War Memorial Place

War Memorial Place is a popular retirement development, situated just off the Harpsden Road to the south of Henley town centre. There is a bus stop just metres away with a regular bus service to Henley town centre. In addition the Henley Handy-bus visits regularly and also provides trips to Reading. The development has a communal residents lounge and Rose Garden.

There is a Tesco superstore approximately 1/4 of a mile away, Smarts Fish Bar, which is very popular with Henley residents and the Three Horseshoes pub are both within walking distance.

Henley has a wide selection of shops, including a Waitrose supermarket; there are boutiques, a cinema, a theatre, excellent pubs and restaurants, a bustling market every Thursday and good schools for all ages. The commuter is well provided for with the M4/M40 giving access to London, Heathrow, West Country and Midlands. Henley Station has direct links with London Paddington (via Twyford TfL Elizabeth Line) 55 minutes.
