ACCOMMODATION

Off-road parking for several cars, some steps and a path leads to the timber front door.

The ground floor features a light and spacious reception room with views, a well-appointed kitchen and a modern ground floor bathroom.

The reception room features limestone tiled flooring with under-floor heating, a fireplace with wood-burning stove, fitted shelving, and a window with countryside views.

The kitchen has a good range of modern natural wood wall and base units with work-surfaces over and an inset single drainer sink unit with mixer tap, with a washing machine under. There is a built-in electric double oven with ceramic hob and hood over, an integrated fridge, Limestone tiled flooring with under-floor heating, a useful storage cupboard under the stairs leading to the first floor and a door to outside.

The stylish bathroom has a modern white suite comprising a panel enclosed bath with shower over with a shower screen, a w.c with a concealed cistern and a vanity wash-hand basin, under-floor heating and a heated towel rail.

To the first are two double bedrooms.

Bedroom 1 is a carpeted double bedroom with a cast iron fireplace and a front aspect with two windows offering far reaching views over the Chiltern Hills.

Bedroom 2 is also a carpeted double, with a vaulted ceiling with access to a large loft, with potential for conversion subject to relevant permissions and a deep mezzanine over the stairs.

Outside

To the front of the cottage there is a paved terrace, perfect for Al Fresco dining, whilst enjoying the far reaching views. A shrub border and steps lead down to an area of lawn with a hedge providing privacy. Further steps lead down to the gravelled car parking area, providing off-road parking for several cars.

To the rear there is a small courtyard and steps up to the lane behind.

LOCATION

Living in the Hambleden Valley

The property is set on the edge of the historic Hambleden village conservation area, which was featured in The Telegraph's "Top 30 Most Beautiful Villages in England" (2022). The village offers a wonderful sense of community, with a shop and post office, sports and social club (with tennis, football and cricket facilities), and the popular Stag & Huntsman pub and hotel. The Norman church provides teas and concerts as well as services.

A local shop and post office can be found at Hambleden. Marlow, Henley and High Wycombe are all roughly 7 miles away.

The M4 and M40 motorways are easily accessible.

Maidenhead M4 Junction 8/9 – 14 miles

Wycombe M40 Junction 4 – 10 miles

London Heathrow – 28 miles

London – approx. 40 miles

Oxford – approx. 24 miles

Both Marlow and Henley have regular train services that connect to the mainline from the West into London Paddington, and to CrossRail - Elizabeth Line. The Chiltern Line has a regular rail service running from Marylebone station to Birmingham and the north, via High Wycombe.

Schools

Hambleton is conveniently placed for good schools including grammar schools and is in the catchment for Sir William Borlase's grammar school in Marlow.

Local primary schools include Frieth and Cadmore End, all less than 4 miles away.

Rupert House School and St Mary's School in Henley, Shiplake College, and Reading Blue Coat. A wide range of Independent schools within the area including Eton, Wycombe Abbey, Wellington College, Queen Anne's School.
