Rifle Cottage, 83 Greys Road, Henley-On-Thames RG9 1TD

Formerly The Rifle public house, Riffle Cottage is a beautifully presented two-bedroom period home arranged over three floors. Rich in character and complemented by a generous terraced garden with a detached purpose-built home office. The cottage enjoys a highly convenient position on Greys Road, just a short walk from Henley town centre, the River Thames and the railway station.

Council Tax Band: D

ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor centres around a welcoming sitting room, with a front aspect window with fitted shutters, a handsome cast-iron fireplace and fitted 'floating' shelves and create a wonderfully cosy space.

To the rear, the kitchen is well-appointed with a range of modern wall and base units, with inset sink with mixer tap, white 'metro' style tiled walls, a built-in single oven, gas hob with hood over. A stable door opens to the rear garden, making it an ideal space for everyday living.

Stairs lead down to the lower floor where there is a double bedroom with excellent built-in storage with a glass covered barrel chute providing natural light.

To the first floor, the bedroom 1 has a front aspect with fitted shutters.

The bathroom has a modern white suite comprising a panelled bath with shower and glass screen, a vanity wash-hand basin and w.c.

The small 3rd bedroom is currently used as a dressing room and could also serve as a child's nursery.

Outside

The rear garden is a particular feature being approximately 60 ft in length. Arranged over attractive tiers, it offers a lower paved terrace with steps up to a lawn with mature planting and further steps to the upper paved terrace space for a table and chairs, providing a peaceful setting. At the top of the garden sits a detached home office, fully equipped with power, making it ideal for home working, hobbies or a studio.

In addition there is a timber shed.
