Upstairs, the landing leads to two double bedrooms: bedroom one to the front, and bedroom two to the rear, which benefits from a built in cupboard.

Outside, the pretty, well-stocked rear garden measures approximately 36' x 19'. It has a central lawn with established flower borders, a paved patio area, and a useful garden shed. As is typical of period cottages, there is a right of way for the neighbour across the lower part of the garden.

Wingham is a picturesque and historic village, renowned for its medieval architecture and welcoming community. Nestled between Canterbury and Sandwich, it offers a range of amenities including shops, pubs, restaurants, a primary school, and a doctor's surgery. The surrounding countryside provides scenic walks and outdoor pursuits, while excellent transport links give easy access to Canterbury, the coast, and London via nearby rail services.

This delightful cottage offers a rare opportunity to purchase a characterful yet modernised home in one of East Kent's most sought-after villages.
