Property Description

92 Kessock Avenue is a well presented, first floor flat situated in the established residential South Kessock area of Inverness. It will appeal to a number of purchasers including first time buyers, young families, or those looking for a property with fantastic rental potential. Boasting many pleasing features including its own independent access, gas central heating, double glazed windows, and a driveway with garage, early viewing comes highly recommended to appreciate all it has to offer. Inside, the property has generous living space throughout and consists of an entrance stairwell and a hallway, which gives access to all rooms. There are two double bedrooms and a bathroom comprising a wash hand basin, W.C and a bath with an electric shower over, finished with tiling. The kitchen lies to the rear elevation and is fitted with wall and base mounted cabinets with worktops, and a stainless steel sink with drainer, taps and splashbacks. There is an integrated gas oven and hob, a free-standing washing machine, and a tumble dryer, both of which are included in the sale. Completing the accommodation is the welcoming lounge which has a gas fire providing a focal point, alcove storage and double windows to the front elevation, allowing natural light to flood the room. A great feature of the property is the storage it provides with both bedrooms having cupboards, plus a cupboard in the hallway, and a floored loft, which offer additional storage if required. Outside, the lock-block driveway is enclosed by a combination of timber and metal fencing and in turn leads to the detached single garage.
