Our Vendor Loves...

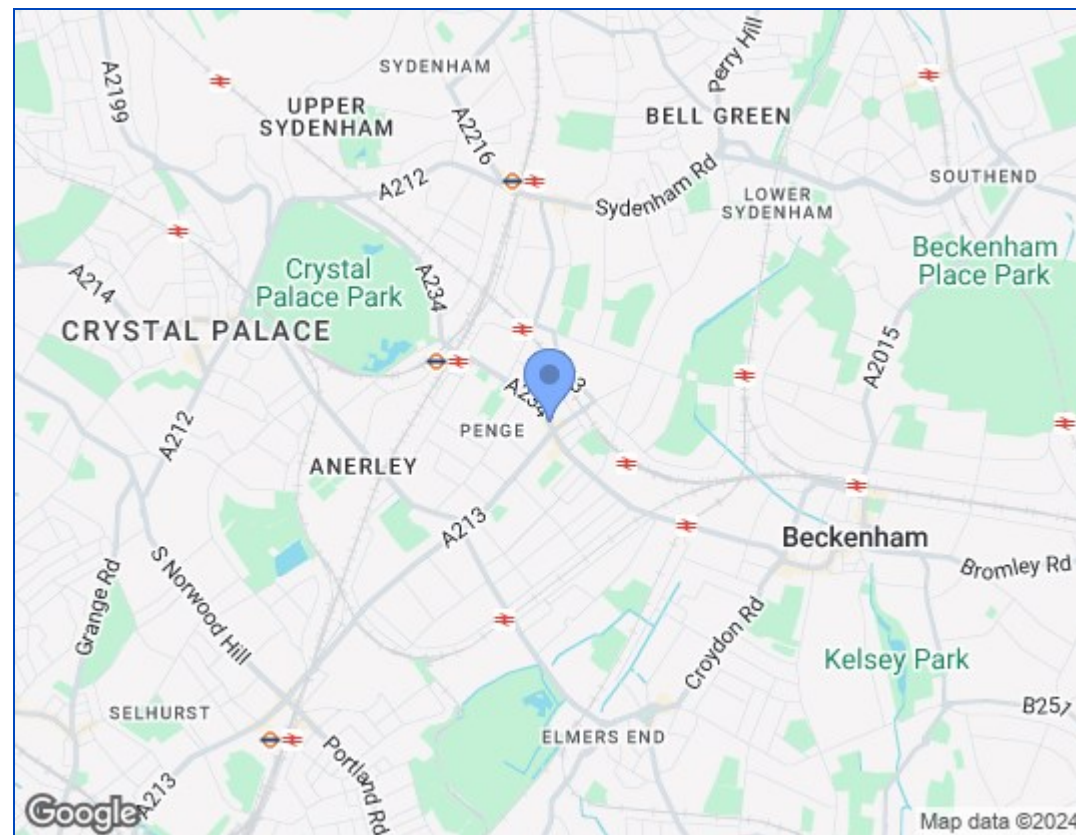

“My favourite part of the 58m2 large one bed flat is the open-plan living area which gets a lot of light. This is a lovey space to relax in and socialise with friends. This spacious flat is a great option for a professional couple and/or first time buyers. The wide range of transport links and the good selection of local pubs, cafes and amenities make it a great area to live. The area is continually being regenerated with a large selection of amenities now available. It has been a great home for me and hope it is for you too”.
