Our Vendor Loves...

When I first walked into the flat I fell in love with the staircase, painted all white with the large open window . I was surprised by the height and sense of space and light, wall space for art , my plants that thrived and a cosy window seat! I enjoyed the overall views from the windows. As a single female, I delighted as a first time buyer creating a quirky space for myself. Using the eaves to create a cosy atmosphere with low lighting and zoning a work area and a place to relax and entertain friends. The kitchen had everything, and there was room for a large fridge. The window in the bedroom let in good light and again more space than I had imagined. I developed the bathroom space well, squeezing in a bath and a shower, without it feeling cramped.
