Wooler, Northumberland, NE71 6DR

Price £690,000

Queens Road is a beautifully presented stone built Georgian semi-detached house, located in one of the most sought after residential areas in Wooler, which has recently been voted as one of the most desirable places to live in the north of England. The property has superb open views of the surrounding area and countryside beyond.

This stunning dwelling would make a fabulous family home, which has character and charm with many of the original features being retained, including the oak carved staircase, ornate cornices and coving, fireplaces, doors and deep skirting boards. The spacious accommodation is set on three levels, which is entered through a vestibule which leads to an entrance hall with a beautiful, oak carved staircase and a large walk-in storage cupboard. The lounge has an attractive open coal fireplace and a bay window with a window seat below taking advantage of the views over the garden. Generous dual aspect dining room with a marble fireplace with a log burning stove. There is a good sized family room with an inglenook fireplace with a log burning stove and a doorway to the orangery offering a relaxing place to enjoy the sun and gain access to a patio. Large breakfasting kitchen with a superb range of traditional units including a central workstation and a large walk-in pantry. Doorway from the kitchen to a utility room, a cloakroom and integral garage.

On the first floor is a bespoke family bathroom with a quality four piece suite and four large double bedrooms, the two main bedrooms have attractive open views and fireplaces. Leading from bedroom three is a back staircase and giving access to the fourth bedroom, which is being used as a dressing room. On the second floor is a shower room and two further double bedrooms. Full double glazing and gas central heating.

With an impressive private garden to the front with informal lawns, mature trees, rockeries and flowerbeds. Victorian green and summerhouse.

Must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
