Offers In The Region Of £195,000

www.aitchisons.co

Situated in a small courtyard in the popular village of Powburn some eight miles from Alnwick, this attractive semi-detached cottage offers a delightful retreat in a picturesque setting. With its immaculate condition, this cottage is perfect for those seeking their own courtyardside home.

The cottage features a spacious living room with an attractive brick built open coal fireplace, a well appointed kitchen/breakfast room with white shaker units and a modern bathroom. There are two generous double bedrooms with fitted storage, ensuring ample space for family or friends to stay.

Set within this small courtyard, the property enjoys a sense of community while still providing privacy. There are views from the first floor level of the surrounding countryside, which is rich in natural beauty, making it an excellent choice for outdoor enthusiasts and those looking to explore the stunning Northumberland countryside. The Plough Inn has recently reopened in Powburn which includes the Running Fox, which gives the owners a local meeting place and to enjoy the culinary delights.

This property presents a wonderful opportunity for anyone looking to invest in a second home or a permanent residence. Contact our Wooler office to arrange a viewing.
