Located in one of Wooler's most sought after residential areas, 16 Tankerville Terrace is a beautifully presented stone built townhouse offering a wonderful blend of period charm and modern comfort. Set across three floors, the property enjoys uninterrupted open views over the surrounding countryside, creating a rare sense of space and tranquillity while remaining just a short walk from Wooler's shops, cafes and local amenities.

The accommodation is bright, spacious and thoughtfully arranged, featuring high ceilings, attractive original features and large windows that frame the far reaching outlook. The interior is entered through a vestibule that leads into the entrance hall. At the front of the house is a generous living room with a bay window and a fully tiled open coal fireplace, at the rear of the house is a dining room with an attractive fireplace with a gas fire and a door leading to the well appointed kitchen with an excellent range of oak units with appliances. On the first floor is the family bathroom with fully tiled walls and a modern white suite and two generous double bedrooms, the main bedroom is at the front of the house which enjoys the views. On the second floor are two further bedrooms, one is being used as an office.

The townhouse also benefits from full double glazing and gas central heating.

Garden at the front and rear of the house, the front garden is laid to shrubberies and flowerbeds and the rear garden is laid to a lawn with a useful garden shed.

A rare opportunity to purchase a characterful home in an enviable location, 16 Tankerville Terrace combines scenic surroundings with the convenience of town living. Early viewing is highly recommended.
