As you approach The Cottage up a secluded drive, you will be greeted by its inviting façade, which reflects the original, traditional arts and craft house architecture. The property is set within large landscaped gardens and grounds bounded by mature trees creating privacy for the owners. The lawn at the side of the cottage used to be a tennis court, the lawns wrap around the property on all sides. Ample parking on a driveway that gives access to a garage.

The inside of the property is in need of modernisation and upgrading, however, it offers huge potential to create a stunning home for a family. The interior is entered into a large reception hall with the original staircase, there is a well proportioned lounge with a bay window and a recess to sit next to the open coal fireplace, there is a separate dining room which leads to a kitchen and a cloakroom. On the first floor are three good sized bedrooms, a toilet and a bathroom. Many of the original features have been retained including the fireplaces. Potential to extend the accommodation if required. The property has LPG central heating. If you are looking for a secluded property with acreage and stunning countryside views, then look no further than this property. Contact our Wooler office to arrange an appointment to view.
