Conveniently located within easy walking distance to the centre of Wooler, we are pleased to bring to the market this attractive stone built terraced cottage, which has a pleasant view of the surrounding areas and countryside beyond. The present owner has been using the property as a weekend retreat, however, it has in the past been run as a holiday let.

The property is entered into a spacious open plan living room/kitchen, with ample space for furniture and an excellent range of cream shaker kitchen units with built-in appliances. On the first floor is where the second floor is located, with the original inglenook fireplace, there is also a toilet on this level. On the upper floor is the main double bedroom, with fitted wardrobes and a modern en-suite shower room. The cottage has full double glazing and gas central heating.

Parking at the front for one car and a small gravelled sitting area.
