Offers Over £375,000

www.aitchisons.co

Positioned along one of Berwick-upon-Tweed's most admired terraces, 13 St Helens Terrace is a delightful three bedroom period home offering exceptional views across the North Sea, the Lighthouse and the sweeping Northumberland coastline, delivering a rare opportunity to secure a home in an enviable coastal setting.

This house would make a stunning family/holiday home with many of the original features and character. The interior is in need of some modernisation and upgrading, however, it offers huge potential to create a lovely home.

The spacious interior is entered through a vestibule which leads to a welcoming entrance hall with the original carved staircase. The lounge is located at the front of the house with a bay window with uninterrupted sea views, coving and an attractive marble fireplace. The dining room has ample space for a table and chairs and leads to a well appointed kitchen. Also on the ground floor is cloakroom.

On the first floor are three good sized bedrooms, each filled with natural light, two enjoy outstanding coastal panoramas, making everyday living feel truly special. A well-appointed family bathroom completes the accommodation. The property has full gas central heating and double glazing.

Small garden at the front and an enclosed lawn garden at the rear offering space to unwind and dine outdoors. A garage provides secure parking and valuable additional storage, which has a summerhouse/garden shed attached.

Situated next to Spittal beach, the promenade and delightful coastal pathways, this property combines tranquillity with convenience. Whether as a full time residence, coastal retreat, or investment opportunity, 13 St Helens Terrace is an exceptional home with views that are certain to captivate. Contact our Berwick-upon-Tweed office to arrange a viewing.
