Introduction

Erehwon is a well-positioned detached four-bedroom dormer bungalow, occupying an elevated rural setting in the heart of North Herefordshire with far-reaching views towards the Black Mountains.

Set within approximately 0.53 acres of established gardens and grounds, the property offers generous accommodation, abundant natural light and excellent flexibility of space. The property offers clear scope for modernisation, presenting an excellent opportunity for purchasers to create a substantial home to their own specification in a peaceful yet accessible location.

Situated between the rural villages of Pencombe and Risbury, the property enjoys a tranquil countryside setting surrounded by rolling farmland and a strong sense of rural community. The area is well served by local facilities and schooling, with highly regarded primary schools in the surrounding villages and secondary education available in Bromyard, Leominster and the cathedral city of Hereford, together with reputable independent options further afield. Despite its peaceful position, the property remains well placed for access to nearby market towns, with Bromyard providing everyday amenities, Leominster offering additional services, and Hereford delivering a comprehensive range of retail, cultural and leisure facilities.

The accommodation briefly comprises:

Ground Floor

Entrance Hallway

Large light-filled entrance hallway with doors to:

Living Room

A cosy, characterful reception room centred around a traditional electric fireplace with decorative surround. The bay window allows natural light to spill across the room.

Kitchen

A warm and traditionally styled kitchen enjoying an attractive outlook across the gardens and open countryside. The room combines classic timber cabinetry with a heritage-style navy AGA, built-in oven, plumbing for washing machine and dishwasher. A large picture window above the sink frames far-reaching rural views, while the tiled flooring and generous work surfaces create a highly functional everyday cooking space.

Former Garage / Dining Room

A versatile converted garage now serving as a generous utility and storage area but could be improved to create a further reception room or garden room, offering direct access to the gardens. The space features tiled flooring and exposed brickwork that lend a practical, rustic character.

Inner Hallway

Leading to the downstairs toilet with wash hand basin and separate storeroom with door to the conservatory.

Conservatory

A beautifully light garden room designed to maximise the property's exceptional rural setting. Expansive glazing spans the full width of the space, framing uninterrupted views across rolling fields, mature trees and open countryside.

Cloakroom / Toilet

with toilet, pedestal wash hand basin and window above providing natural light.

Study

A practical study with dual-aspect windows providing plentiful natural light. The room offers excellent potential for a dedicated home-working environment or separate dining room.

Bedroom 4 / Lounge

A spacious bright bedroom or further reception room enhanced by a charming bay window that draws in abundant natural light. The room's neutral tones and generous footprint create a calm and versatile space with attractive garden views.

Bathroom

A traditional bathroom with a white suite comprising corner wash-hand basin, toilet and panelled bath with decorative tiling. The room features patterned flooring and a window providing natural ventilation and light.

First Floor

A spacious landing with built-in storage and a window providing an abundance of natural light.

Master Bedroom

A large double bedroom with in-built cupboards, vintage floral wallpaper, and the large window ensures good natural light, while the room's proportions allow for a variety of furniture layouts.

Bedroom 2

Double bedroom with sloped ceilings and window providing pleasant outlooks and natural light, while the neutral décor offers a blank canvas for future styling. A flexible room suitable for guests, children or hobby use.

Bedroom 3

A unique, characterful room with excellent natural light from the large window with views towards the Black Mountains. The space includes a useful in-built cupboard and a soft neutral palette, making it ideal as a study or bedroom.

Externally

The property sits within an impressively generous 0.53-acre plot, offering excellent privacy and a wonderfully established setting. The grounds include sweeping lawned gardens, a raised ornamental pond, a small greenhouse, and former vegetable beds ideal for reinstating productive growing space. A dedicated area houses the ground-mounted solar array, while the extensive driveway provides plentiful parking and an easy, welcoming approach.

Services

We understand the property benefits from mains electricity, mains water and private drainage. The property is heated with electric night storage heaters, electric fires and electric AGA.

EPC

Erehwon currently has an Energy Performance Certificate rating of F.
