Location

Green Lane Farm is located north of the village of Titley. Titley is situated on the B4355 between Kington and Presteigne. From the property, Kington lies approximately 3 miles to the southwest, and Presteigne is approximately 3 miles to the northeast, across the Wales–England border. The larger towns of Leominster and Ludlow and city of Hereford are accessible via nearby main roads. The A44, which runs between Rhayader and Leominster, passes through the nearby town of Kington and provides access to the wider road network.

Description

Green Lane Farm is an attractive holding in north Herefordshire extending to approximately 24.59 acres. At the centre of the property stands a characterful stone-and-render farmhouse, with a yard and two traditional stone barns set to the rear, complemented by a range of more modern buildings suitable for a variety of uses (subject to the necessary consents). The land is gently to moderately sloping and benefits from good access both from the farmyard and the adjoining council-maintained road. Green Lane Farm offers excellent potential for continued agricultural use, alongside opportunities for alternative or diversified uses (subject to the necessary consents).

Farm Buildings

The Farm benefits from a range of both modern and traditional agricultural buildings positioned to the rear of the farmhouse. These buildings are used for livestock accommodation and general storage. They are conveniently accessed directly from the council-maintained road, which runs between the buildings. To the rear of the house is a yard with two traditional stone buildings. Immediately west of Green Lane is a range of more modern agricultural buildings of steel and timber-framed construction. The farm buildings are connected to mains electricity and have a private water supply. The buildings are more particularly described as follows:

Stone Barn 1

16.5 x 5.86m (54'1" x 19'2")

Comprising a part two storey stone barn with a sheeted roof and timber cladding, partly open fronted with timber supports.

Steel supports with cladding under a tin roof.

Adjoining Pole Barn

13.5m x 8.6m (44'3" x 28'2")

With a concrete floor, timber supports under a sheeted roof.

The Land

The land extends to approximately 24.59 acres in total, comprising productive pasture divided into a series of interconnecting field parcels. The main block amounts to around 16.81 acres, arranged as four well-linked enclosures with direct road frontage onto Green Lane and internal gateways providing easy movement throughout. Classified as Grade 3 under the provisional agricultural land classification, the land has been utilised for grazing livestock, offering strong stocking capabilities and secure boundaries formed by mature mixed-species hedgerows and post-and-wire fencing. Access is taken directly from Green Lane into field parcel 4043, with further access available via Green Lane Farmyard.

To the rear of the more modern farm buildings lies a further 7.12 acres of Grade 3 & 4 pasture, divided into two well-defined parcels that provide additional useful grazing land. A small area of established woodland and a natural pond enhance both the ecological and visual appeal of the holding, creating an attractive rural backdrop to the farmstead and contributing valuable biodiversity.
