Summary of Features

- Semi-Detached semi-isolated Cottage
- Full of character
- Grade II Listed
- Good sized gardens and parking area
- Between Hay on Wye and Hereford

Asking Price £310,000

An historic Grade II Listed farmhouse being semi-detached set at the end of a long vehicular drive and surrounded by farmland. This period property enjoys an abundance of character throughout, including exposed beams, wood paneling, old fireplaces and staircases. Although the accommodation offers only 2 bedrooms, it extends to over 1,300 square feet over two floors, which has had the benefit of some recent renovation works. There is Calor gas central heating, large kitchen/dining area, good sized sitting room, rear utility with WC and to the first floor; 2 double bedrooms, both having bathroom/shower room facilities. There is a wide parking area to the front and medium sized gardens to the rear, which overlook adjoining farmland. To fully appreciate the semi isolated location, views over adjoining farmland and the Golden Valley and the character of this home, an internal inspection is recommended.

No ongoing chain.
