Situation

Linley Green is a charming rural hamlet in Herefordshire, nestled near the Worcestershire border. Just a few miles from Bromyard, it enjoys easy access to a variety of nearby communities and amenities. In the local area, you'll find excellent dining options such as Pensons in Tenbury Wells, The Baiting House in Upper Sapey, and Holloways in Suckley, not to mention The Talbot in Knightwick. Less than three miles away, the historic market town of Bromyard offers a comprehensive range of services, including local butchers and farm shops, petrol stations, independent retailers, pubs, bars, schools, dentist and cafés.

Littleton Grange

Littleton Grange is a substantial timber framed barn conversion with adjoining self contained one bedroomed annex, courtyard area and adjoining paddock extending to around an acre. The barn was converted in around 1999 and retains an abundance of traditional features including exposed timbers, flagstone floors whilst including modern amenities such as ensuites, air source heating and solar panels. We understand the Annex was converted around five years ago. We understand there is additional land available to purchase by separate negotiation.

The accommodation briefly comprises:

Wayleaves, Easements & Rights of Way

The property is sold subject to and with the benefit of all easements, quasi easements, wayleaves and rights of way both declared and undeclared.

Town & Country Planning

The property is offered subject to any development plans, tree preservation orders, ancient orders, public rights-of-way, town planning schedules or resolutions which may be or may come into force. The purchasers will be deemed to have full knowledge of these and have satisfied themselves as to the effects such matters have on the property.

Plans, Areas and Schedules

These are based on Ordnance Survey and are for reference only. The purchaser(s) shall be deemed to have satisfied themselves as to the description of the property. Any error or mis-statement shall not annul a sale or entitle any party to compensation in respect thereof.

Misrepresentations Act

(a) The property is sold with all faults and defects (if any), whether in good condition or otherwise and neither the Vendors nor Sunderlands 1862 LLP, the Agents for the Vendors, shall be in any way responsible for such faults and defects, or for any statements contained in the particulars of the property prepared by the said Agents.

(b) The purchaser shall be deemed to acknowledge that he has not entered into a contract in reliance on any of the said statements that he has satisfied himself, as to the contents of each of the said statements by inspection or otherwise, and that no warranty or representation has been made by the Vendors or the said Agents in relation to, or in connection with the property.

(c) Any error, omission or misstatement in any of the said statements shall not entitle the purchaser to rescind or to be discharged from this contract, nor give either party any cause for action.

(d) All measurements and distances are approximate. The electrical, drainage, water and heating installations have not been tested by the Agents. (The normal enquiry is carried out by the purchaser's Solicitors and the type of inspection undertaken by a purchaser's surveyor have not been carried out by the selling agents for the purchase or preparation of these particulars). Interested perspective purchasers are recommended to obtain an independent survey report on this property.

Inconsistency

In the event that there is any variance between these particulars and the contract of sale, then the latter shall apply.
