Outside

Set back from the main road, stretching across approximately 1.4 acres of land is this well presented, detached family home. At the front of the property, a generous, sweeping shingle driveway provides ample space for multiple vehicles and is bordered by a landscaped lawn featuring feature shrubs and elegant bamboo planting. A concrete pathway, flanked by decorative brick wall flower beds, leads gracefully to the main entrance, while a timber gate offers convenient access to the rear garden.

At the rear of the property lies a spacious, well-maintained lawn garden, adorned with a variety of mature trees and landscaped areas featuring decorative plants and shrubs. A patio seating area provides a perfect spot to relax and leads to a shingled section that accommodates a workshop, as well as an additional brick-weave seating area with a charming summer house, complete with natural light and power. For those with a green thumb, there is a dedicated vegetable patch with raised planters, a greenhouse, a walk-in fruit cage, and an additional timber garden shed.

Pool Area

4.08 approx. x 2.58 approx.

The property benefits from a separate pool area which sits off of the side of the garden room, bordered within a brick wall surround and awning. With resin flooring, a sizeable salt water, heated pool and outhouse which provides changing facilities and a WC, and also houses the pump and has gated access to the rear garden.

Workshop

5.96 approx. x 2.95 approx.

A purposefully built external workshop with light and power inside, base unit with laminate work surface, stainless steel sink with over water heater and electric radiator.

Land to the rear

Beyond a timber gate to the rear of the property lies a separate area of lawned land with a pond and a range of outbuildings, including former stables and an additional workshop set on a concrete pad, offering clear potential for equestrian use. The layout provides practical access, with a field gate leading directly from the driveway to the side aspect, ideal for the movement of vehicles, equipment, or horses. French doors open onto a seating area overlooking the pond, creating a peaceful setting to relax and enjoy the surrounding countryside.

Agent Note

- The driveway is subject to a right of way in favour of neighbouring properties for access purposes.
