Summary

A beautifully renovated five-bedroom detached home, believed to date back to the 1700's and formerly the village post office, this characterful property is situated in the charming village of Aldeby, close to Beccles, and offers approximately 2,678 sq ft of versatile accommodation arranged over three floors, including a sitting room, cosy snug, formal dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, boot room, utility room, ground-floor bathroom, first-floor shower room, and a principal bedroom with contemporary en-suite; original features such as exposed brickwork, timber beams and two wood burners are complemented by tasteful neutral décor, while outside the home benefits from a south-west facing garden ideal for entertaining, outbuildings, and a desirable corner position, making it a unique and appealing family home in a sought-after village setting.

Location

This home is situated in the charming village of Aldeby, just a short distance from the historic market town of Beccles. Aldeby is a peaceful village in the heart of Suffolk, offering a tranquil setting while still being close to local amenities. The nearby town centre of Beccles features a mix of independent shops and eateries, centred around the stunning St. Michael's Church, rich in history. Convenient transport links provide routes directly into the city of Norwich, as well as to seaside towns such as Lowestoft. The surrounding countryside and the Norfolk & Suffolk Broads, dotted with beautiful towns and villages, make Aldeby a perfect place to call home.
