

57 Robert Street, Northampton, NN1 3BJ
£895 PCM

Available to rent is this unique and beautifully converted ground-floor, warehouse-style residence, complete with its own private entrance.

Brimming with character, the property boasts soaring ceilings, generous proportions, and a wealth of original features including exposed brickwork and timber beams.

The accommodation comprises a spacious principal bedroom to the front aspect with strikingly large windows, a well-appointed family bathroom, a further versatile study/internal room, and an impressive open-plan living/kitchen area. Flooded with natural light from Velux-style windows and with direct access to the rear, this space is as practical as it is atmospheric.

Perfectly situated close to Northampton town centre and the mainline train station, this highly desirable property offers both convenience and style.
