Introducing...

This well presented, ground floor flat is set within a well-maintained, purpose-built retirement development in Peverell, strictly for the over 55's. The property enjoys ground floor, level access and has direct access to the well-maintained communal gardens. Internally the accommodation offers a lovely living room, modern fitted kitchen, double bedroom with built in wardrobes and a modern shower room. Further benefits include double glazing, electric heating and a monitored resident's personal alarm system. Other facilities include an in-house manager, 24-hour emergency care line, laundry facilities, guest suite for visitors/family members and a residents' lounge, where a wide range of social events are held. Externally is a lovely, well-maintained and west facing communal garden and resident's parking area, subject to availability. Offered for sale with no onward chain, Plymouth Homes highly recommend an internal inspection to appreciate everything the apartment has to offer.
