

A WONDERFUL GARDEN SQUARE PROPERTY

A wonderful garden square property completely refurbished throughout with access to Gledhow Gardens communal gardens, in addition to its own private patio/terrace. The property is entered via an elegant raised ground floor doorway whereupon an internal staircase welcomes you into the apartment entrance hall. Being spacious and well configured this two bedroom apartment measures c.880 sq ft (82 sq m), in addition to a large private and secluded patio/terrace measuring c. 107 sq ft (10 sq m). The orientation makes the property particularly well lit. The west facing reception/dining room has wood floors and large sash windows providing the perfect frame with which to view the mature garden trees, one of the most attractive and coveted communal gardens within this highly esteemed pocket of Prime Central London and South Kensington. The fully equipped, brand new kitchen interconnects perfectly with the entrance hall, reception and dining area. The accommodation further benefits from well-appointed storage including an under stair cupboard and integral wall hung wardrobes as well as recessed cupboards to both bedrooms; the luxurious large shower room deserves particular attention. Both double bedrooms face the internal private patio with large windows providing excellent reflected light.

This grand mid terrace redbrick Victorian property has an imposing exterior and well appointed facade. Within close proximity of the extensive facilities and amenities of nearby Gloucester Road, Knightsbridge, King's Road, High Street Kensington as well as the wide open green spaces of Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park. Please note that images may include virtual staging for illustrative purposes.
