The property combines classic high ceilings and many original period features with a carefully considered refurbishment that supports modern living. The ground floor centres around a generous reception hall, leading to a well-proportioned living room with a large bay window and an adjoining garden room. To the rear, a comfortable sitting room flows into a conservatory, creating an inviting snug retreat. The spacious kitchen/dining room offers a contemporary open-plan layout with direct access to the sandstone-paved terrace, ideal for relaxation and entertaining. A cloakroom and sizeable utility room, linking directly to the garage, sit just off the kitchen/dining area, while a large double bedroom with dressing area and en suite bathroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

On the first floor, a shower room sits on the half landing, with four well-balanced bedrooms arranged above. The standout master bedroom features an impressive vaulted ceiling and a striking high-level window opening onto a balcony with elevated views across Totland Bay and out to the Solent. A generous en suite adds further comfort, incorporating double wash basins, a separate shower cubicle and a bath.

The gardens wrap around the property to the front, side and rear, with the rear enjoying a sunny southerly aspect and feature a substantial garden chalet/studio complete with a shower room and kitchen area. Ample off-road parking and turning space for several vehicles is provided at the front, along with a garage.

LOCATION

Totland Bay is a desirable coastal location, celebrated for its sweeping westerly Solent views and spectacular sunsets. The area offers a peaceful coastal setting with a scenic beach, charming promenade and easy access to miles of dramatic cliff and downland walks. Everyday amenities are close at hand in the village, while neighbouring Freshwater provides additional shops, cafés and services. The harbour town of Yarmouth, with its sailing facilities and mainland ferry links, is just a short drive away.
