Bremel Farm is perfectly located in a glorious position at the end of a quiet lane within an Area of outstanding Natural Beauty, just at the foot of Limerstone Down and offers an excellent equine/small holding farm. Traditionally constructed in 1999 the house comprises of a 3/4-bedroom dwelling with ample character, having been refurbished by the current owner. The house has a well-kept south facing garden and there are great sea views from the windows. The property extends to approximately 24 acres (9.65 ha) of grazing land with stables, sand school, office and storage barn and has the benefit of oil fired under floor heating throughout. In addition to the 24 acres. This is a great opportunity for those wanting to own a quality home with equestrian facilities in this highly sought-after rural setting close to the historic service centre village of Brighstone. The pretty village of Shorwell is also close by. The property is located in the heart of fabulous hacking out territory with The Downs located directly to the North with good access. The land rises to the north and is therefore south facing with a network of tracks, fencing, gates and mature hedgerows. Truly inspirational views are enjoyed from the top of the property.
