This first floor apartment offers an exceptional coastal lifestyle in the heart of Totland Bay, combining modern comfort with beautifully presented interiors and far-reaching sea views. This light-filled apartment has been thoughtfully styled throughout, featuring a welcoming living space that opens onto a private balcony where the outlook stretches across landscaped grounds towards the western Solent and mainland coastline beyond and takes full advantage of the glorious and renowned Totland Bay sunsets. Inside, the home is arranged with a calm, contemporary aesthetic, from the elegant living room and well-appointed kitchen to the stylish bedrooms and modern bathrooms, creating a refined yet relaxed retreat by the sea. A garage en-bloc provides useful and secure parking for a car, complemented by a generous visitor parking area. Set within a well-kept development just moments from the beach, this is an ideal full-time home or coastal escape.

LOCATION

Just a short stroll from the property, Totland Bay's beach and the much-loved 'Turf Walk' offer an idyllic coastal escape, complete with The Waterfront pub/restaurant overlooking the sea. Follow the shoreline path and you'll reach Colwell Bay, a sandy cove known for its relaxed atmosphere and the acclaimed dining experience at The Hut. Climb a little higher onto Headon Warren and you're rewarded with some of the most breathtaking views anywhere on the West Wight. Totland village centre is only a few hundred yards away and offers a local store, newsagent and post office, while a wider selection of shops, services and amenities can be found in Freshwater village just a few minutes' drive away. The historic harbour town of Yarmouth, with its mainland ferry terminal and excellent sailing facilities, is around ten minutes by car, making this an ideal location for either a permanent home or a relaxing holiday retreat.
