A well presented apartment located within a recently constructed residential development for those aged 55 and over. Designed for both independent and assisted living, the apartment offers a comfortable and practical living space. The bright, open-plan living area includes a modern kitchen with integrated appliances, and there are two generously sized bedrooms with the main bedroom enjoying a dual aspect and a lovely sea and coastal outlook. The wet room can be accessed from the hallway or directly from the main bedroom for added convenience. Outside, there are communal gardens and ground to all sides of the property together with a large car parking area to the front. The advertised price reflects a 75% share under the shared ownership scheme.

All apartments are equipped with emergency pull cords, connected to on-site staff available 24 hours a day to respond in case of a serious emergency. The building offers a range of communal and care facilities, including a residents' lounge, sensory garden, on-site shop, hair salon, guest suites, laundry room, assisted bathing facilities, and a mobility scooter charging area. Optional social activities and meal services are also available, providing additional support and opportunities for community engagement. In addition, there is accessibility to all floors via both lifts and stairs.

LOCATION

Located on the outskirts of Freshwater, Green Meadows benefits from convenient access to the main bus route connecting Freshwater, Totland, and Yarmouth. The development is easily reached by car and features a spacious on-site car park at the front of the building. The popular Colwell Bay beach is just half a mile away, while Freshwater village centre, with its selection of shops, services, and amenities, is approximately one mile from the property. The historic harbour town of Yarmouth, which offers a mainland ferry service to Lymington, is around two miles away.
